About the LGMA

The Organisation

The Local Government Management Agency (LGMA) is a state agency that provides a range of services and supports to the local government sector. We are an agency of the Department of Housing, Local Government and Heritage, primarily funded by local authorities.

Through our work with local authorities and other stakeholders, we support the co-ordinated and effective delivery of local government services and policy.

Our work is guided by the local authorities and geared towards helping them to improve efficiency across their services; to implement change; and to make use of leading practice from inside and outside the sector.

Working for the LGMA gives you the opportunity to gain experience at the heart of local government and to make a real difference for local authorities and citizens in Ireland.

What we do

The LGMA's work extends across a number of diverse areas in order to meet the changing needs of the local government sector.

- We drive, monitor, and maintain shared services projects across the local government sector
- We advise and support on strategy and policy development across the local government sector
- We provide professional Human Resources (HR) and Industrial Relations (IR) guidance, advice, and support to local authorities
- The LGMA develops, procures, maintains, and provides support for several internal ICT systems in use in the local government sector
- Our Libraries Development section is the national advisor and development agency for public libraries in Ireland
- Our Water Services Transition Office (WSTO) supports the Water Services Reform Programme and the transition of services to Irish Water
- The LGMA provides research and communications support to the local government sector
- We provide programme management and innovation support to local authorities

About Libraries Development

Libraries Development is the national advisor and development agency for public libraries in Ireland. As set out in the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2012 (Transfer of Functions of An Chomhairle) Order 2012, the functions of Libraries Development are:

- Provision of advice, assistance and services to library authorities in relation to the public library service,
- Making recommendations to and providing services for the Minister for Housing, Planning, Community and Local Government in relation to the public library service as the Minister may request or as Libraries Development sees fit,
- Action to promote and facilitate library co-operation.

Libraries Development was established in 2012 within the Local Government Management Agency and continues the functions of An Chomhairle Leabharlanna, The Library Council. Libraries Development works with the Department of Housing, Planning and Local Government, Department of Rural and Community Development and local authorities in strategic planning. While working directly with the local authorities in piloting and implementing strategies, it also co-ordinates and monitors progress at national level. Libraries Development liaises and partners with international and national library and cultural sector bodies for innovation, best practice and expertise sharing and with EU expert groups for EU policy input.

About the Role

Working with the Libraries Development team, the Senior Library Assistant will liaise with the line manager in relation to planning and implementing the work programme on a day to day basis. The Senior Library Assistant will be responsible for delivering on specific work programmes.

Key Duties and Responsibilities

The Senior Library Assistant will support the work of Libraries Development and be responsible for a range of work areas including:

- Assisting in the implementation of national public library strategy
- Assisting in the planning of the workload for the Libraries Development team
- Liaising with local authorities, the Department of Rural and Community Development, other government departments and relevant national bodies and project partners
- Researching new public library trends and services in Ireland and internationally
- Assisting in the development and rollout of national initiatives
- Supporting the preparation and implementation of national procurement tendering
- Supporting the development and delivery of national training programmes
- Providing assistance, information, advice and training to support team members and local authority library staff
- Providing secretariat for national committees and working groups
- Managing relevant digital platforms including websites and social media
- Assisting in communication and awareness campaigns
- Working on the design, editing and proofreading of materials, as required
- Event management including organising conferences, workshops, launches, photocalls, briefings, etc, in person and online
- Supervising the work of Library Assistants who may form part of the team from time to time
- Ensuring that deadlines are met
- To input to LGMA corporate initiatives, as required
- Ensuring high levels of customer service, responding to queries and requests for information in a professional, courteous and timely manner
- To carry out additional duties, including attendance at national and regional events as required.

Application and selection

How to apply

All applications should be emailed directly to jobapplications@lgma.ie no later than 5pm on the 13th of May 2024. Applications must be made on the official application form and all sections must be completed in full. When completing the application form, accuracy is essential. The information you supply in the application form will play a central part of the selection process. If you do not receive an acknowledgement of receipt of your application within two working days of applying, please check your junk/spam folders as email notifications may be filtered into your junk/spam email folders. Any other queries regarding your application form should be emailed to jobapplications@lgma.ie

Shortlisting

The Agency reserves the right to shortlist applications based on the information supplied in the application form. In the event of a shortlisting exercise being employed, the Interview Board will examine the information provided in your application, assess it against the criteria based on the requirements for the position and decide if you will be shortlisted, relative to the other candidates applying for the position.

Interview

Admission to the interview is conditional on receipt of a completed application form by the required cut-off date. The onus is on all applicants to make themselves available for the obligatory interview on the date specified by the LGMA and to make whatever arrangements are necessary to ensure that they receive communications sent to them at the address specified on their application form. Virtual interviews are taking place over MS Teams. Instructions and guidance and links will be sent to you in advance of interview should you be shortlisted for interview. Interviews will be conducted by an Interview Board set up by the LGMA. The Interview Board will assess the merits of candidates. Only candidates who reach such a standard as the Interview Board consider satisfactory in the interview will be considered for selection. Candidates at interview must demonstrate relevant experience and job-related achievements and the following key competencies as set out in LGMA Competency Framework available in the Appendix.

Panels

A panel(s) may be formed on the basis of the outcomes of the selection process. Candidates placed on a panel may within the life of the panel be appointed as appropriate vacancies arise. The placement on a panel does not necessarily lead to a job offer. Candidates whose names are on the panel may be offered a similar role at the same level within the Agency. The life of the panel will be one year.

The selection process will not be concluded until such time as references have been sought and clearance checks, i.e. occupational health, verification of education qualifications have been carried out.

Feedback & Review

Candidates have the right to seek feedback from their interview. Should a candidate be unhappy with an action or decision in relation to their application for appointment, they have the right to seek a review of the process. This request must be made within 5 working days of receiving notification of the decision on their application.

Deeming of Candidate to be Withdrawn

Candidates who do not attend for interview as requested or do not furnish such evidence as requested in regard to any matter relevant to their candidature, will have no further claim to consideration.

Offer of Appointment

The LGMA shall require persons to whom an appointment is offered to take up such appointment within a period of not more than one month. If they fail to take up the appointment within such period, or such longer period as the Agency in its absolute discretion may determine, the Agency shall not appoint them. All appointments are subject to receipt of satisfactory references and candidates may be required to produce documentary evidence of qualifications or experience claimed in their applications.

Probationary Period

All new employees are required to satisfactorily complete a probationary period. In accordance with the 'Terms and Conditions of Employment' in their employment contract employees will be required to serve an initial probationary period. During this period, the employee's performance on the job and potential abilities are evaluated to determine suitability for the position. At the end of this probationary period, a formal assessment will be carried out by the employee's line manager, resulting in a decision on whether the employee has completed their probation satisfactorily.

Candidates should note that canvassing will disqualify their application.
The Local Government Management Agency is committed to a policy of equal opportunity.
